New York, March 11.—Quotations on the Stock Exchange left off fractionally above yesterday's close and near the highest. Trading et the outset was of a hesitating character. Showing the solution of the stock Exchange left off fractionally above yesterday's close and near the highest. Trading et the outset was of a hesitating character. Showing the solution of the state of hesitating character. Showing the solution of the Sugar, the improvement in this stock Excancelling the earlier decline. The general market moved sympathetically, but very narrowly. Subsequently there was a raid on Metropolitan Street Railway at the statement of the stock This active large the solution of the Boston exchange at the local exchange. The governors at the local exchange the province of the statement shows the metropolitan Street Railway shares moved very stugishity and attempts to improve them were retarded by the heaviness of the Union Pacific issues, in which foreign selling was quite pronounced. Various pessions at the statement was precived with considerable favor in the street and induced active buying raising the general level of prices above last night. The closing was strong and neces.
